

BRIAR PARK APARTMENTS POLICY AND QUALIFICATION ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Welcome to our community. It is our policy to offer apartments for rental to the general public without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, or handicap. Our staff is committed and obligated to treat each individual in a consistent and equally fair manner. To assist you with your decision about making Briar Park Apartments your new home, we provide the following guidelines used to qualify residents for tenancy in our community. Please note that these are our current rental criteria; nothing contained in these requirements shall constitute a guarantee or representation by us that all residents and occupants currently residing at the apartments have met these requirements. There may be residents and occupants that have resided here prior to these going into effect. Additionally, our ability to verify whether these requirements have been met is limited to the information we receive from the various resident and credit reporting services used.

Please review this information before filling out an application and paying the following:

- An Application Fee in the amount of $50 for the application verification. This is a non-refundable fee per person.
- An Application Deposit in the amount of $150 which non-refundable and serves to hold a unit for you for up to 30 days. When you are approved and move-in, the application deposit will be applied toward the security deposit on your unit.
